NOTE FOR CIRCULATION.

The Provincial Road Transport Officer Madras is having under his control 60 lorries so far as Madras City is concerned. As against these, three units of 10 lorries each, were formed in August 46 and deputed with the necessary staff for urgent transport work first to Tanjore and then to Salur and Malabar. The Board of Revenue (C.S.) has proposed that the staff already sanctioned for these units should be strengthened by sanctioning an additional reserve staff of 12 drivers and 6 cleaners. It is proposed to accept the Board's proposal to appoint an additional staff of 6 cleaners. As regards the employment of additional drivers, it is considered that this may be deferred till the question of fresh sanction for the main staff of 36 drivers, for which proposals have been submitted by the Board separately, is settled.

2. Out of the remaining 30 lorries under the Provincial Road Transport Officer a unit has been formed for work mostly in Madras city. The Board has proposed the employment of the following staff to man and maintain this unit.

(1) 1. Assistant Transport officer.
(2) 1 Senior Foreman.
(3) Two fitters.
(4) Eighteen cleaners.
(5) One upper division clerk.
(6) Two time keepers.
(7) One Electrician and
(8) Forty eight drivers.

Out of the above staff, the Board has already employed 26 drivers 6 cleaners and 2 time keepers, in anticipation of the sanction of the Government. It is proposed to sanction the employment of the staff mentioned in items (1) to (7) above. As regards drivers mentioned in item 8, it is proposed to sanctioned the employment of only the 26 drivers already appointed by the Board, the need for employment of the remaining 22 drivers proposed by the Board being reviewed separately.

3. The extra cost involved in the proposals works out to Rs.26,300 for the period proposed and to Rs.38,800 p.a. Finance have accepted the proposals. As the cost exceeds the limit of Rs.5000 p.a. the case has to be placed before the Standing Finance Committee and the cabinet. The case may be circulated to Honourable Minister (Food) and Honourable Minister (Finance) before it is placed before the Standing Finance Committee.
